

YOUSTNEWS

SUMMER 2024 NEWSLETTER

Youst! is happy to announce our debut performance at the Hanger 76 Brewery and winery cooperative in Oceanside, September 14th 2024 starting at 6:00pm. Everyone is invited to enjoy music, food and libations under the stars Saturday night.

Youst members Zack Haun, Liam and Mark Hammer, along with drummer Steve Baessler will be performing a mix of original and cover music spanning recent decades. The band will be bringing their talents to songs from the 70's, 80's down to today. Their original music spans generations.

Liam Hammer and Zack Haun share the spotlight as lead vocalists crafting signature original songs such as "Willow Avenue" and "Stone Cold", while Mark Hammer and Steve Baessler, bring timeless hits like "Angeline" and "Hideaway" from the catalogue of Who We Are.

The sets are crafted to delight and surprise, We look forward to sharing the evening with you all.

Youst!

The meaning behind the name...

Youst.. pronounced YOW'st comes from a Scottish phrase meaning to talk loudly and at some length, but to little point as in a noisy, aimless conversation. For all those who frequent Scottish pubs, you will feel right at home. For those new to the term, you may find it life changing.

It speaks of the relationships we come to rely on that may seem random but create the framework of who we are. Each one built on chance encounters of random conversations that fill our minds and lead our feet on paths we never imagined or intended.

Beacuse everyone needs to Youst... from time to time. :-)
